

"Shakespeare" By Another Name: The Life of Edward de Vere, Earl of Oxford, the Man Who Was Shakespeare

By Mark Anderson

Gotham Books/Penguin Group USA, August 2005

www.ShakespeareByAnotherName.com

ERRATA

20 December 2006

The Timeline contains six periods where question marks should be. The correct punctuation is listed here with an underline. These typos have been corrected in the second printing.

page x "...attends coronation of French King Henri III at Rheims?"
page xi "...throughout Italy (and other lands?)"
page xi "...traveled with court to Oxford University?"
page xi "...to engage Spanish Armada en route to England?"
page xi "...promoted by Lord Burghley – and de Vere?"
page xii "...requesting access to unprinted Shake-speare texts?"

Page 16:

"In late June [1561], the 16th earl ~~had accompanied his dramatic troupe on a tour to Ipswich and~~ had adjudicated day-to-day business of the local government..."
[n.b. thank you to researcher Christopher Paul for pointing out the records of the 16th earl's' troupe confirm their presence in Ipawich in 1561 but do not specify whether the earl was with them or not.]

Page 38:

"At thirteen, she [Anne Cecil] was ~~four~~ six years younger than de Vere."

Page 77:

"These ~~siman~~ simanim, dating back to 1215..."

Page 136:

"The queen's Privy Council got involved, ordering the ~~extrication~~ extradition of Weekes..."

Page 151:

"~~The earl probably sensed~~ A hint of awkwardness colors the account of this event..."

Page 247:

"...an annual revenue loss of £1000-£230=~~£760~~ £770"

Page 572:

"Robert Brazil, The Mystery of the Shakespeare Publications... online at ~~ShakespeareResearch.com~~ www.ElizabethanAuthors.com;"